

Web Design and Branding

Last Updated Wednesday, 28 May 2008

At Xpress Concepts, we have quite the artistic touch. Being competent with professional design applications and well versed in the vagaries in the Internet, we are able to provide are customers with fresh modern designs for their branding and web presence.

Our prices are very competitive, starting from as little as £200 for a single web page.

We are able to design an appropriate well presented logo and branding for your business; this service is ideal to get a consistent image for your business across the various media you are using for publicity.

We are happy to view and provide a report on the status of your existing website for free; we will also provide a no obligation quote for any suggested changes.

Most enquiries to your business will be followed up with a visit to your website and a strong well designed presence will help you build confidence in your customers and suppliers.
